"A regenerating workshop welcoming the winter, in the heart of Dartington Gardens"

Seiki is a simple and transformative health-care practice evolved by Akinobu Kishi during his 50 years research in the process of healing within the Shiatsu tradition, eastern & western philosophy and shamanism. Often referred as the "Secret Art of Shiatsu", Seiki offers an out of the box "non-therapy" approach, and guidance on how to be well and to also understand & manage our condition

Daniela Coronelli lives and manages a Mindfulness, Shiatsu and Seiki health-practice in Totnes. She also currently runs courses in Mindfulness for Stress and Pain Management for groups, organizations and for businesses in Devon. Following informal & professional trainings to be a Shiatsu, Mindfulness and Amerta Movement teacher she has been facilitating courses for shiatsu schools, health organizations and for private groups since 2002.

Daniela met Akinobu Kishi in 2003 and worked with him for 10 years in the UK, Europe and Japan. She found Seiki, an inspirational, compassionate and effective method for facilitating the healing process and she continues to develop and teach this discipline in Devon and the South-West
